Student Criminal Offence(s) Enhanced Disclosure Form

(for the disclosure of 'spent', 'unspent' and 'unfiltered' convictions, any new convictions or any ongoing legal proceedings for crimes involving safeguarding or child protection matters)

Who needs to fill in this form?

Anyone applying for, or already on, any healthcare-related, social work or counselling courses, or any other course which might lead to a profession or occupation which involves working with children or adults at risk, must use this form to tell us about:

- any 'spent', 'unspent' and 'unfiltered' criminal convictions
- any new convictions received after applying for, or while studying on, a course at Belfast Met
- any ongoing legal proceedings for crimes involving safeguarding or child protection matters

Where can applicants/students get advice on the above definitions or on how to fill in this form?

Applicants/students can:

- Read our Student Criminal Convictions Disclosure Policy on our website www.belfastmet.ac.uk
- Read the Student Criminal Disclosures page on our website www.belfastmet.ac.uk
- Contact a member of the College's Criminal Disclosures Panel

When should applicants/students send us their completed CDF2 form?

Disclosures must be made as early as possible, i.e.:

- At the same time as the online course application
- At least four weeks before the start of a 'direct enrol' course
- Immediately after any new convictions are received
- Immediately after the start of any legal proceedings for safeguarding or child protection matters

Where should applicants/students send their completed CDF2 form?

The fully completed form can be sent to us for confidential processing in one of the following ways:

- E-mailed to the studentsupport@belfastmet.ac.uk mailbox
- Posted (in an envelope marked 'confidential') to the Pastoral Care Manager at the following address:
Belfast Metropolitan College, Titanic Quarter Campus - Room 3:013, 7 Queens Road, Belfast, BT3 9DT
- Handed in (in an envelope marked 'confidential'), for the attention of the Pastoral Care Manager

What happens next?

The Criminal Disclosures Panel will decide whether any risk to students, staff and visitors can safely be managed. As soon as the Panel has made that decision, the applicant/student will be informed of the outcome.

What happens if applicants/students who need to make a disclosure do not fill in this form?

If an applicant/a student does not fill in this form, and the College later finds out about their undisclosed convictions or ongoing legal proceedings, they may be refused a place or asked to leave their course.
